Modulus

It has been the aspiration of the 1952 Modulus Staff to make this book a possession which will be of great value in the coming years. We have attempted to compile an accurate and colorful record of the year's events so that, as the mellowing influence of years steals over us, we'll be able to clearly recall the friendships we've made, the varied experiences we've had, and the knowledge we've gained. "They're years left behind, but still they'll be ours. In our beautiful memories."

—The Editor.

A Bouquet

Our memories are like bouquets. They may be full and colorful, cheerful and gay, or empty and wilted. But all # of Memories

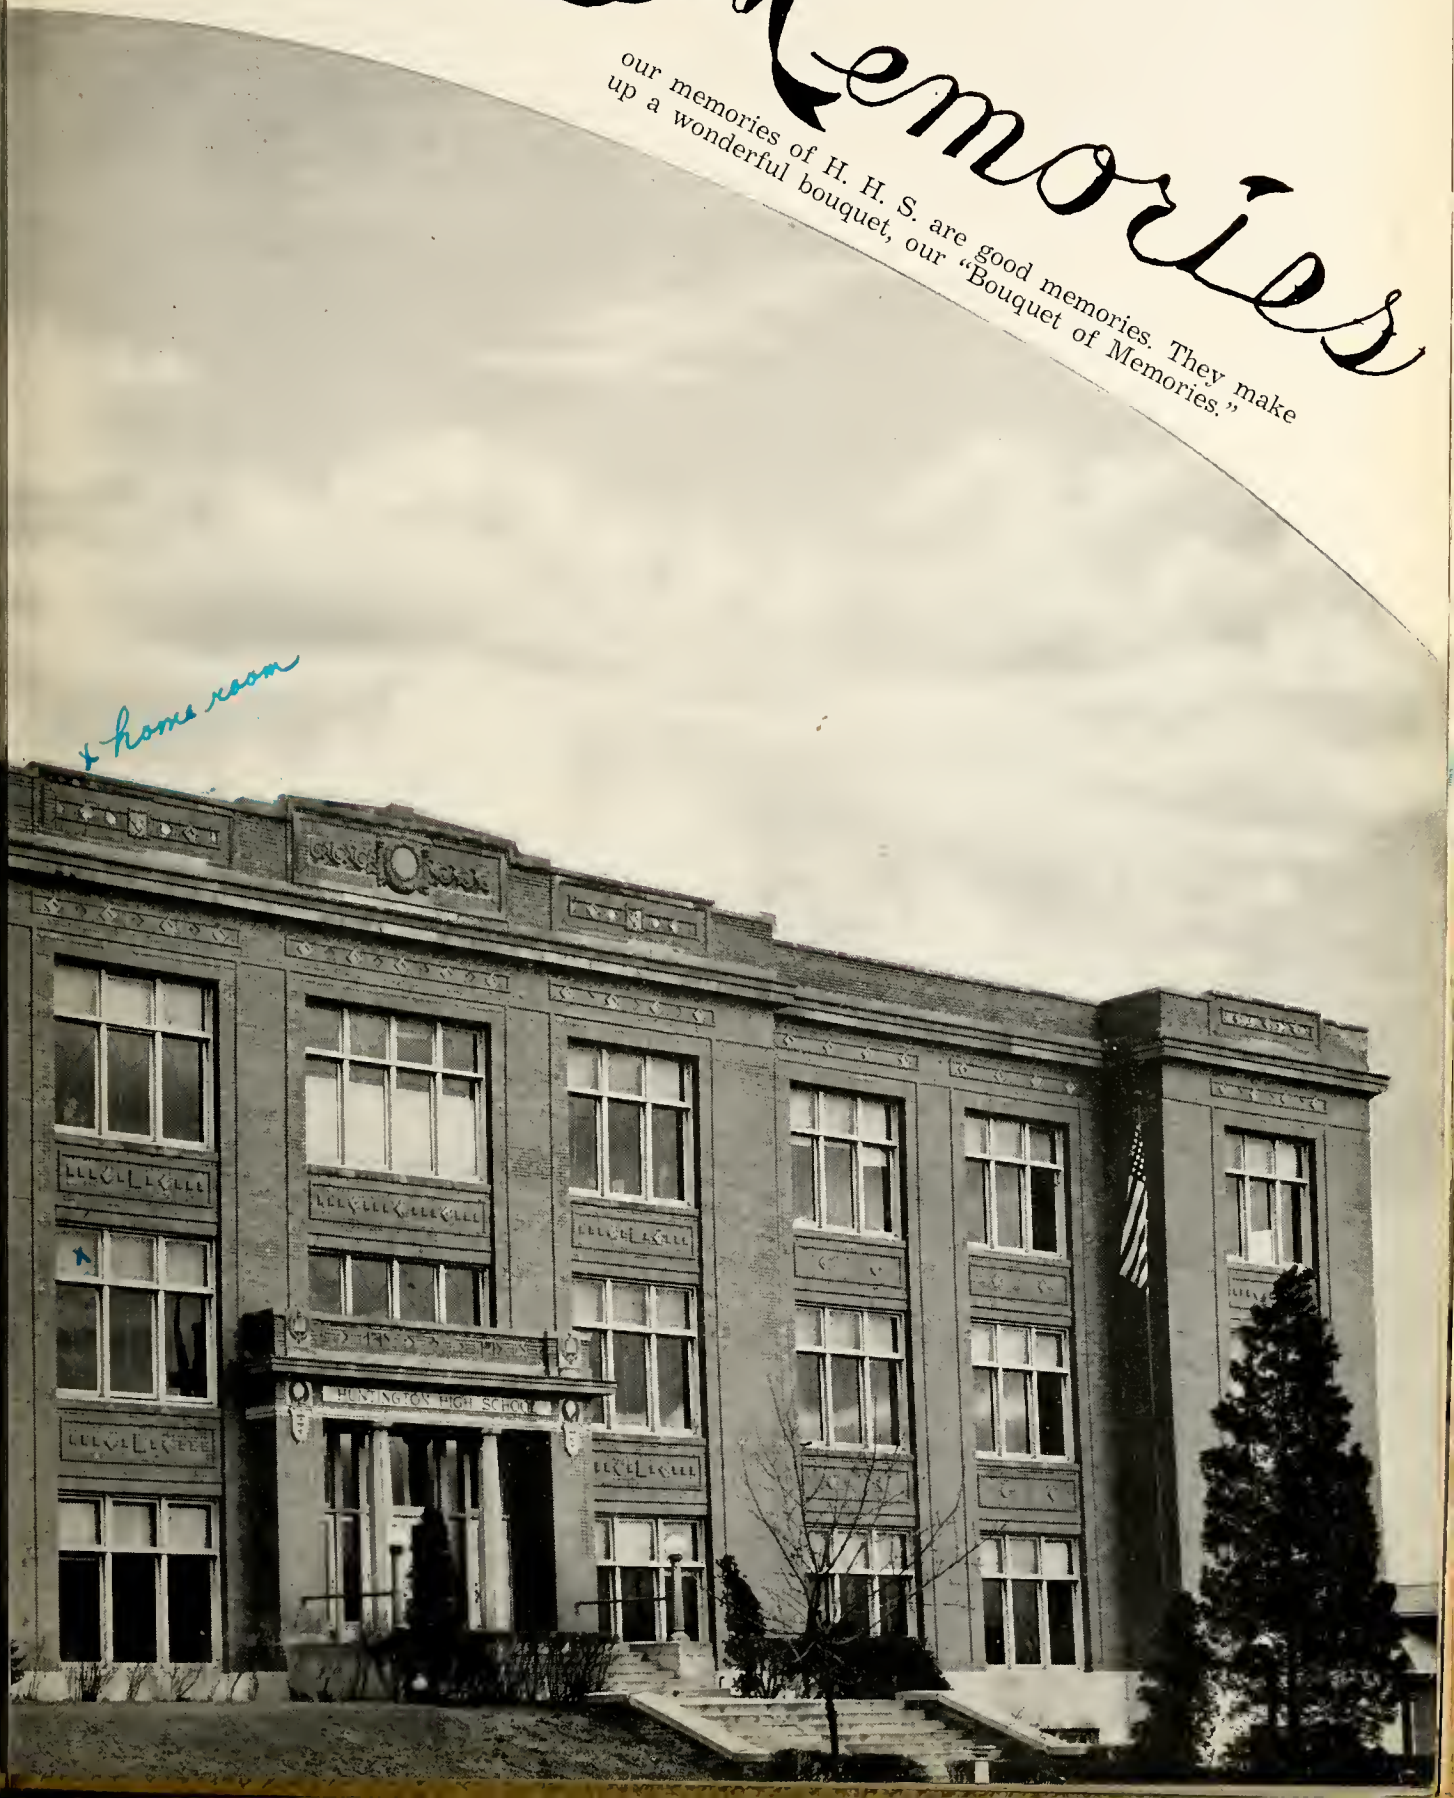
our memories of H. H. S. are good memories. They make up a wonderful bouquet, our "Bouquet of Memories."



Faculty

One of the first things we think of as we reminisce of school days is—the Faculty.

We came to know our teachers as friends and to realize that they are all working to better the lives of each and everyone of us.

And we came to the conclusion that school would be absolutely no fun at all without teachers.

THREE DISPATCHERS KEEP

MR. HAROLD JOHNSON

Mr. Harold Johnson, our principal, sets up our class schedule, co-ordinates the various school activities, and generally keeps our school running in a smooth, orderly way to enable us all to make the best of our opportunities.

MRS. MARIE PORTER

Mrs. Marie Porter, Dean of Girls, has charge of keeping the attendance records of the girls, assisting in our guidance program, and helping in auditorium planning.

MR. LESTER GORDON

Mr. Lester Gordon, Dean of Boys, has charge of keeping the attendance records of the boys, planning and supervising our Wednesday guidance programs, helping select our paid auditorium programs, and the administering of special testing programs.

SCHOOL RUNNING SMOOTHLY

SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board is appointed by the City Council for a term of three years. They supervise the spending of money and the hiring of teachers in our school system. The members this year are: Mrs. Ruth Duncan, Mr. Lawrence Leyman, Mr. Frank Helvie, and Mr. Burton Stephan.

MR. BURTON STEPHAN

Much credit goes to Mr. Stephan, our competent superintendent, for helping plan and devise changes for progressive procedure in our city schools. Working with the school board, he enthusiastically advances any projects for the development of a better educational system.

SECRETARIES

Miss Langley, Mr. Stephan's efficient secretary, has an important part in keeping the city schools running smoothly. She keeps a detailed account of the financial status of the schools and their organizations and orders all supplies.

When you walk into the office,
The first thing that meets your eyes
Is Betty behind the counter,
So businesslike and wise.

Yes, Mr. Johnson's secretary, Miss Grossman, is always ready and willing to help us in any way. She does a very capable job.

Lou Ann has been added to the secretarial staff of Huntington High to help with the many details entailed in running our school.

CLASS COUNSELORS

Our Class Counselors help us plan and carry out our 4-year high school program. They call us for guidance during each year in order to check our progress and make adjustments in our schedule when necessary. If our grades begin to fall, our counselor will help us iron out our difficulties. They help us immeasurably in making the most of our high school days.

Seniors

It seems like only yesterday that we shyly entered the doors of Huntington High School, and here we are—seniors. Our "Bouquet of Memories" is complete.

Even though we didn't win too many football and basketball games this year, it was a wonderful season because it was OUR team. We had a lot of fun at tournament time, and we were proud of our boys.

Although we were more afraid of sickness than the stage this year, the Revue was great. We seniors were positive that the "52" Modulus Revue was the best ever.

Everyone had fun at the Sweetheart Dance. The decorations were clever, the orchestra was good, and the grand march was extra special for us because it was our last trip through that lovely heart. The whole evening was one never to be forgotten.

We laughed and cried over our wonderful play "Melody Jones" and were sorry when it was over. With the proceeds from the play we paid for our gift to the school—the sound system for the auditorium.

Then came the most thrilling part of our senior year—Achievement Day. For three years we'd stood up while others marched in the auditorium, but now we were the ones marching in and all the underclassmen were standing up for us.

Our last week as Huntington High School students was quite a busy one. There was the Sunshine Banquet—an impressive and tearful affair, Baccalaureate—a very reverent service that made us stop and think, "What are we going to do with our lives?" and Commencement —we got our Bibles and diplomas and were very proud that we had been graduated from such a wonderful institution—Huntington High School.

SENIOR STUFF

Our Senior year was a busy one with the Revue, Senior Play, dances, parties, and innumerable activities.

To get off with a good start, we elected our officers. They worked hard and did a fine job. Tom Fahrnow served as President; Jean Bippus, Vice-president; Phyllis Krider, Secretary, and Charles Cutshall, Treasurer. Mr. Ware and Mr. Hummer were very fine sponsors —we couldn't have gotten along without them.

Melody Jones was the girl everyone was talking about, and also the name of our Senior play. It was presented March 19, 20, and 21, and was very successful. We'll always remember the heart-warming story of Melody Jones.

We shall never forget Huntington High School and to make sure that the school will not forget us, we put a new sound system in the auditorium.

The Junior class gave us a very fine reception. The banquet was marvelous, and truly another one of those nights that are unforgetable.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Senior Honor Society, composed of the upper 15% of the class when ranked by combined student vote, faculty vote, and scholarship rank, was elected April 4. The selected were: Phyllis Krider, Sally Carroll, Don Holloway, Sue Day, Jean Bippus, Betty Barnhisel, Donna Gorham, Janet Herzog, Jean Ann Vernon, Ronald Pownall, Jim Trzynka, Pudgie Helvie, Duane Caley, Patsy Priddy, and Bruce Stewart.

JUNIOR ROTARY

Each month of the school year the Huntington Rotary Club chooses a high school senior boy to be a Rotary member for the month. The high school members are chosen for their civic interests, dependability, personality, and manners.

The senior boy chosen, meets with the Rotary Club each Tuesday noon at the Hotel LaFontaine where he lunches with the members, enjoys the programs, and learns the fact that service ranks above all.

The Junior Rotarians last year were:

Tom Fahrnow, September; Jim Bradley, October; Darvin Haupert, November; Wayne Beemler, December; Ronald Pownall, January; Don Holloway, February; Charles Helvie, March; Dick Lintner, April, Gene Stephen, May.

VALEDICTORIAN

Valedictorian, student ranking first in the class, was Miss Phyllis Krider. She, representing the senior class, accepted the diplomas as presented by Mr. Frank C. Helvie.

SALUTATORIAN

Salutatorian, the student ranking second in the class, was Miss Sally Carroll. She, representing the senior class, accepted the Bibles, presented by Mr. Hummer.

K. B. F.

K. B. F., Kiwanis Builds Forever, is composed of the upper 5% of the senior class determined by scholarship alone. Those elected this year were: Sally Carroll, Don Holloway, Phyllis Krider, Janet Herzog, and Sue Day.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Since we have gained enough knowledge to leave dear ole' H. H. S. and make an attempt to tackle the cruel world, we, the class of '52, leave to you, the green Freshmen, the bewildered Sophomores, and the anxious Juniors, our last will and testament; and hope with these generous contributions you will be able to gain the superb knowledge, the unsurpassable talent, and the excellent character that have made our class so exceptional.

Individually we make the following bequests:

Jack Ade wills his little car to Marilyn Thompson.

Duane Caley, after many previous attempts, leaves.

Jim Bradley leaves his wild tales to Dale Ware.

Bonnie Calhoun, Kay Carroll, Phyllis Krider, Phyllis Henemeyer, Carol Morris, and Marlene Riley will-ingly leave with their future already planned.

Ed Haines wills his place on the bench to some ambitious sophomore.

Carol Reed Hosler, Gloria McBride Drabenstot and Mary Brown Tombilson will their collection of Uncle Sam's nephews to Sue Williams.

Phyllis Saufley and Joan Crooks will their bows and arrows to Mr. Cupid.

Gene Jay wills his bar-bells to Alan Knight.

Lewis Walters wills the physics class back to Diff.

Wayne Beemler wills his good sportsmanship to Bud Stringfellow.

Dean Fry wills his conservative attitude to Pat Boyle.

Mary Bogear wills her attendance record to Dick Carroll, whom the teachers often mistake for a new student.

Charles Helvie wills his exceptional good looks to George Riseborough.

Bob Spath wills his class ring to Nancy Dye who has already claimed it.

Dale Coffman wills his slow and cautious driving technique to Dave Mitchell.

Tom Fahrnow leaves Janet. (We never expected to see this.)

Jane Powers leaves Ronnie Pownall and vice versa.

Darvin Haupert leaves his quick sense of humor and wise cracks to Steve Moon.

Jean Bippus wills her Saturday afternoon trips to Ft. Wayne to Waneta Hensel.

Joan Barnhisel wills her enormous appetite to Bob Bixby.

Betty Barnhisel wills her ability to draw fish to some poor lonesome minnow.

Carlene Martin wills her ability to go steady to Nancy Fahrnow—who never has.

Jim Trzynka wills his superior intelligence to Dave Kelsey.

Dora Pence wills her Economics notebook to Wayne Cozad.

Eugene Lemke wills his curly hair to Sara Sue Stockman.

Dick Lintner, Dick Weyler, Ed Shenefield, and Gene Stephan will their senior jackets to any deserving apprentice of Coach Bill.

Freda Follis wills her "pep" to all the dead-beat underclassmen in H. H. S.

Peg Kramer wills to all students of H. H. S. the itch to know.

Bill Johnson has nothing to offer. He suggests the students find out for themselves.

Janice Bell wills her sister anything she is lucky enough to get out of school.

Joan Parker wills her height to Rog Handwork, who needs it so badly.

Carol Burkhart wills her freckles to Ruth Ann Caley.

Shirlee Weiger wills her collection of class rings to Carolyn Golden.

Norman Christman wills his horse, Jasper, to one of the many drug store cowboys.

Don Campbell, George Felts, Jim Dinius, and Pauldene Dolby will to Old Man River, their "must-know-something-but-don't-say-nothing" attitude.

Jean Ann Vernon will-ingly leaves high school for Phil.

Hervey Weiford wills his theaters back to Maurie Robbins.

Tom Weesner wills his shirts back to the Carroll House.

Joe von Roemer wills his mastery of the English language to Miss Wilson.

Betty Thornton wills her velvety voice to Miss Sees.

As Sally Carroll and Bruce Stewart leave, they will her "Bruce-it's-time-to-go-home-now" attitude to any underclassman who might be inclined to stay up much too late.

Donald Holloway leaves for Moorehead College, and wills his preference for a certain blond to a certain boy in Fort Wayne.

Gloria McClure wills her record collection to any musically inclined freshman.

Margaret Chambers wills Station WVSH to Mrs. Patterson and "Pop" Day.

Sue Day leaves with a "Hal-of-an-attitude."

Shirley Ervin wills her ability as a jerk—soda, that is—to Bob Cutshall.

Ted Dumbauld leaves with his class ring still on his own finger.

Charlene Fruechtenicht leaves to wait, and wait, and wait.

La Vonnie Collins left early.

Betty and Gene leave with one thing in common—namely, Bartrom.

Jack Hendricks and Donna Gorham leave for Purdue.

Zan Poorman leaves for all points where she can find a man.

Sonia Schacht wills her summers at Wawasee to Julie.

Bob Peters leaves his ministerial heritage to Ann Paulen.

Doug Wilson and Tom Bowman will their wrestling place in front of 107 to Dean Burman.

Janice Powell wills John to the rest of his class.

Elaine Safford and Sandra Welker will the band to our two bandleaders, Mr. Weesner and Eddie Gephart.

Phyllis Morris wills Harold's parking place in front of the school to some underclassman with a car.

Even though Carolyn Mygrant leaves, there are Mygrants to take her place here.

John Winkelman leaves with his Ford and nobody to ride in it.

Charlie Cutshall leaves—in spite of Miss Ellis and Mr. Johnson.

Joan Hoffman wills her long hair to Carol Chalmers.

Patsy Priddy leaves to devote her attention to catching the little fellow with the duck-tail haircut.

Janet Herzog leaves with wings and no horns and tail.

Nancy Halderman leaves a vacancy in the H. H. S. music department.

Joyce Whitacre wills the Buick back to Jo-Ellen Fluke.

Dorothy Gee leaves—for Warren?

Wiladean Drabenstot wills the Press back to Harold.

Garnet Sands and Dorothy Dalrymple will the Home Economics Department to all future housewives.

Joan Horsley wills an executive position at the Y to Larry Shenefield.

Robert Williams and Ervin Fuhrman will their seats in the middle section of the auditorium to two Juniors.

Margaret Rudig leaves her swimming ability to any underclassman who can't keep above C-level.

Beverly Crago wills her quick temper to Mr. Wilbern—who very seldom loses his.

Joan Labertew leaves her abundant hair to Mr. Brown.

Pat Nichols leaves her ability to appreciate a joke to Sue Barnhisel, who already has too much ability.

Nancy Burris leaves Indiana to all Hoosiers—she'll take sunny Calif., thank you.

Phyllis Hall wills her quiet, serene personality to Pat Broom.

Mary Lou Wamsley leaves her giggle to Ronnie Crawley.

And we, the undersigned, will to the Junior Class our play, jokes, money, parties, and outstanding men and women, and challenge it to be as intelligent and witty as the Senior Class of 1952, which we know it can never accomplish.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

While sailing along in our good Viking ship, we clumsily drop our anchor and find ourselves stuck off the coast of a strange, enchanted land. As we gaze toward shore, we see some of the natives approaching us in strange, little boats. When they come near, we can hear a strain of one of their folk songs, "Shrimp boats are a comin' "—and we can see Phyllis Hall, Carolyn Mygrant, Joanne Parker, and Joan Hoffman manning them.

They invite us to spend the day visiting their city. So we go ashore and the first person we meet is Garnet Sands on the beach. We're introduced to their chief, Tom Fahrnow, known here as the "Great White Father," and he agrees to be our guide.

We are helped onto a weird public conveyance called, The Carpet Cab Co., owned and operated by Tom Weesner; and we're flown directly into town. Zoom!—what was it that just passed us? Why it's Norman Christman on his flying red horse, Jasper.

On the way we pass Honest John Winkleman's used, magic carpet lot and the public school where we see teachers—Joan Horsley, and Peg Kramer—watching Phyllis Saufley instruct her Physical Ed. class. Is that the truant officer, Mary Bogear, dragging a poor little kid to school?

Our first stop is at Pownall's Jet Broom Co. where we see Ronnie talking to his best customer Witch-hazel. Walking on through the operating room. We anxiously inquire if anything is seriously wrong, but we are assured that it's only a minor operation for adenoids.

Next we are shown the laboratories of the "Foundation for the Scientific Validation of old Axioms" and observe Drs. James Bradley and Duane Caley trying to prove that "He who laughs last, laughs best." We leave them in a mild state of hysteria.

While touring the business district, we glance into the First National Bank and see Patsy counting "Nichols." Going on a little further, we stop in at Shirley's Chapeau Shoppe and try on hats with the assistance of Shirlee Weiger, Beverly Crago, and Carol Burkhart. On the way out, we wave to Joe Von Roemer who is leaning out of the foreign embassy. Lastly, we peek into Lewis Walter's Beauty Salon and watch him give Wiladean Drabenstot a permanent. the plant, we see foreman Bob Peters instructing George Felts and Gene Bartrom on some construction problems.

While continuing on to the hospital, Tom informs us he has to stop and refuel the magic carpet, and we see he buys all of his high octaine star-dust at Bob Williams' and Pauldene Dolby's filling station. We arrive at the hospital just in time to hear Dr. Eugene Lemke being called to surgery and to see nurses Joan Crooks, Shirley Ervin, and Joyce Whitacre, wheeling Charlie Helvie into Feeling a little weary, we go for a stroll in the park, and see Betty Barnhisel painting a group of lovely girls. They seem to be Bonnie Calhoun, Kay Carroll, Phyllis Henemyer, Phyllis Krider, Carol Morris, and Marlene Riley. What are those words at the bottom of the picture? Oh, I see! "They're lovely, they're engaged, they use Ponds." Look there's Janet Herzog wanting to know where they sell it.

Seeing Dean Fry and Jim Trzynka, we stop to talk to Jim. (Dean doesn't have anything to say.) Well, so long, Jim, take care yerself. There's Joan Barnishel and Joan Labertew, as patriotic as ever; still writing letters to the army. Bill Johnson stops and happily informs us that the ratio here is two to three in his favor.

In the park, our group spies Margaret Chambers, owner of the portable radio company, listening to her favorite program. Whose sweet and gentle voices are those? None other than Jane Powers interviewing Mary Brown, Gloria McBride, and Carol Reed on the "Happy Homemakers program."

As we walk a little farther, we see Elaine Safford, and stop to buy one of the papers that she's selling. Look at this headline! "Dora Pence is the new president of Wayne Candy Company."

As we turn on through the paper, we see the gossip column done by star reporter, La Vonnie Collins. We read, "Who has Sonia 'Twinkletoes' Schacht been seeing after the closing curtain of her new show? Rumor has it that Sandra Welker will become chairman of the Preservation of Old Fashioned Flying committee with Gloria McClure as co-chairman. A reliable source says that Joyce Whitacre is honored as the first woman to make a round trip across the English channel. She gave much credit to trainers, Donald Campbell and Doug Wilson.

Sue Day reports progress on her search for (Hal) ies comet!

Further on in the paper, we see an advertisement for Coffman's Coffee and there's a picture of Dale holding a can. Here's a picture of Jean Ann Vernon and Zan Poorman modeling the new spring styles in invisible hats.

As we look up from the paper, we see Donna Gorham who invites us to go on a tour with her through the near-by reservation of the Fairy-Foot Indians. We decline because we see it is getting late and our stomachs warn us that we're hungry. We step on the magic carpet and are whisked off to the Elves Emporium, a local night club. On the way in we're greeted by the owner, Bob Spath, and we stop to check our hats with Mary Lou Wamsley. Betty Bartrom comes to take our order when we've been seated, and she recommends Chef Dotty Dalrymple's new dish, Dwarf's Delight.

Say, wasn't that Patsy Priddy that just passed our table humming "Charlie, My Boy"? And there's Charlie Cutshall in the orchestra. From the looks of his haircut, it seems he still can't decide whether to be a long or short haired musician.

Isn't that Jeanie Bippus that just came in? Yes, we're sure. There's Donald Holloway right behind her. Woops, a glass fell on the floor. That's alright, here comes Gene Stephan with his broom to take care of it.

And now for the floor show.

It's a quartet of Janice Bell, Nancy Burris, Margaret Rudig, and Phyllis Morris, accompanied by Dorothy Gee and singing, "Wishing Will Make It So."

It's getting late, so we'll have to leave if we're going to take in a show. We ask Ted Dumbauld to go with us, but it seems he'd rather go skating.

Arriving at the theater, we see that Sally Carroll and Bruce Stewart are starring in Romeo and Juliet at the Pixie Paladium. But we've seen that once, so we go across the street to the Follies.

We purchase our tickets from Jack Ade, and stop in the lobby to buy our popcorn from Ed Shenefield. Gene Jay ushers us to our seats just in time for the opening curtain. The first number is Janice Powell and Nancy Halderman singing, "My Buddy."

(My goodness, is that Carlene Martin on the first row who keeps yelling, "Bring on the chorus!"?) Here's another duo done by Freda "Foxey" Follis and Charlene Fruechtenicht. Now, here is the dance chorus, and on comes "Wee Willies Wicked Waltzers" composed of Dick Lintner, Dick Weyler, Darvin Haupert, Jack Hendricks, Eddie Haines, and Wayne Beemler. (Doesn't Hervey Weiford know he'll lose his job as usher if he keeps on booing?)

Oh dear! what is this, a raid? Oh, it's fire chief Tom Bowman with his aids, Jim Dinius and Ervin Fuhrman. They think it's too great a fire hazard for Betty Thornton to sing her torch song. Guess that's the end of the show, so if someone will wake Jim Shideler, we'll be leaving.

Juniors

A very important part of our High School days was our junior year. We acquired a class spirit and learned the joy of working together. We sold concessions in the rain and in the snow and in spite of the angry comments of the excited fans. We planned a wonderful reception for the Class of "52" and enjoyed every minute of it. Yes, we added a lot to our "Bouquet of Memories" in this—our junior year.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Junior Honor Society, composed of the upper 5% of the class by vote of teacher, vote of class and scholarship ranking, was selected April 4. Those elected were: Sheila Ensminger, Delene Smith, Ann Paulen, Dick Morris, Marcus Burkholder, and Pat Enos.

JUNIORS

The glint in the eye of the class of 1953 was merely a reflection from the shiny, new, stainless steel popcorn machine and all of the change that came rolling in at the ball games this year. The Juniors worked hard and steadfastly toward their goal of "A thousand bags of popcorn or bust," and presented the Seniors with a Reception that is long to be remembered.

As they look back over the year, they remember their sponsors, Miss Jennie B. Wilson and Mr. Robert Diffenbaugh, as the ones whose efforts made their Junior year such a success and so much fun. And not to be forgotten were their hard working, ever-ready officers: Dick Morris, President; Bill Bond, Vice-President; Delene Smith, Treasurer, and Carol Chalmers, Secretary.

Sophomores

While the Seniors read comic books, the Sophomores were hard at work. We diligently studied our homework and it wasn't unusual to see five or six grades on some of our report cards.

Although we finally got out of the Freshman class, we were still frowned upon by upper-classmen, and it took a lot of patience to endure such treatment.

We had one consolation, however, we were very proud of our beautiful rings.

All in all, it was a pretty wonderful year. A year to be tucked away forever in our "Bouquet of Memories."

SOPHOMORES

Being a Sophomore is fun. We have gained enough experience that we don't make all of the mistakes we did, and we are still carefree as we don't have the responsibilities of upperclassmen.

This year we Sophomores think we picked the best looking class rings that our school has had.

Besides being proud of our rings, we are proud of quite a few of the members of our class who have been officers in our school organizations, participated in programs, and are in athletics.

Our officers are Bud Stringfellow, President; George Riseborough, Vice-President; Gene Carroll, Treasurer; Don Hum, Secretary; Mrs. Hillegas, Faculty Sponsor.

Freshmen

Who will ever forget the agonizing experiences of their freshman year? This is truly an integral part of our Bouquet of Memories.

The Freshmen this year had a lot of difficulties as usual. We had barely become accustomed to the school when we were exposed to the horrors of Green Day and upperclassmen. The only thing which kept us from jumping down the elevator shaft and ending it all was the spirit of the teachers and Sunshine Big Sisters who assured us that we were safe.

We managed to survive the year by remembering that the lowly freshman of today is the mighty senior of tomorrow.

FRESHMEN

We were very happy to be the Freshmen of H. H. S. as we looked forward to three more wonderful years here. We really didn't mind if the upperclassmen called us "Greenie" or made some other remarks about us. We went right ahead and elected our class officers who this year were: John Lind, President; Barbara Petrucelle, Vice-President; Nancy Repp, Secretary; Janice Watrous, Treasurer.

Our one highlight of the year was our Freshman party.

Activities

There are many flowers in our "Bouquet of Memories" but none so unforgettable as—Activities. Through Activities—dormant talents are uncovered, personalities are developed, and the art of cooperation is learned.

The innumerable committees, the dances, banquets, meetings, parties, practices, and all the hard work and fun that go into the success of our extra-curricular education will be of inestimable value to us in the future.

"MELODY JONES"

The Senior class play, Melody Jones, was presented in the High School Auditorium on March 19, 20, and 21. It was one of the best plays ever to be presented on our stage and all members of the cast did a superb job of acting. Much credit should also be given to all those who worked on the various committees, to Mr. Ware, who directed the play, and to Mr. Hummer, who was in charge of the business end of the production.

It was the story of Melody Jones, the kind of girl every girl wants to be, because she's honest, straightforward and uninhibited. The kind of girl every father adored because she gives him headaches, heartaches, and the joyful life. It was the story of a young girl's laughter and tears, a story to make one proud of American youth.

During the show Tom Fahrnow, Master of Ceremonies, crowned Miss Marlene Riley as the 1952 Senior Queen. Others entered as candidates were Joan Labertew, Shirlee Weiger, Phyllis Henemyer, and Peg Kramer.

Our hats off to all members of the Senior class for a superb performance.

First Row: Betty Thornton, Jennifer; Jane Powers, Mother; Jean Bippus, Kathy; Phyllis Krider, Francie; Sally Carroll, Melody; Dora Pence, Aunt Laura; Donna Gorham, Elaine.

MISS MODULUS

1952, a new year and time for another Modulus Revue and a new Modulus Queen. With three candidates for Miss Modulus, no one knew who the lucky girl would be until that fatal night, when Don Holloway, the Master of Ceremonies, presented the small silver bracelet to Miss Beverly Gressley, escorted by Marcus Burkholder. It was a lot of hard work and she made many sacrifices, but as all Modulus Queens do, she said it was worth it, and so we say, congratulations, Bev, on your fine work.

UNUSUAL VARIETY OF TALENT

In spite of many difficulties and much sickness, the 1952 Modulus Revue, "Strike Up the Band," was presented on schedule February 7, 8, and 9. A variety of vocal and instrumental numbers, dance routines, and clever skits were presented in an almost professional manner.

The orchestra presented a medley of "Blue Velvet," "Josephine," "Do You Ever Think of Me?" "Johnson Rag," and "Sleepy Lagoon." Tom Barnhisel and Ronald James at the two pianos played "Blue Moon."

The dance choruses were: Military—"Strike Up the Band;" Charleston—"Yes Sir, That's My Baby,"

DISPLAYED IN '52 REVUE

"Charleston," and "Sweet Georgia Brown;" Jive—"Caravan," "Oh, Babe," "Dimples and Cherry Cheeks," and "720 in the Books;" Garden—"Swinging Down the Lane," "Give Me That Old Soft Shoe," and "By the Light of the Silvery Moon."

Special Dance numbers were given by Janelle Weist, "The Shiek"; and a Spanish dance by Carolyn Lesh. Norma Chattin and Don Holloway presented a twirling act to Alexander's Ragtime Band.

John Smith sang "Mam'selle", Carolyn Collins, "Solitaire," and Betty Thornton, "I Won't Cry Anymore." The Sextet gave us "Great Day." The Choir, under the direction of Cloyde Slater presented "Lady Be Good" and "Holiday."

Skits given this year were: Freshman Fritterings, Any Calls for Me, Heavenly Day, Morning Radio Hour, What a Play, and On the Balcony. Probably the number that received the most applause was Invitation, Address Unknown, presented by Jack Ade and Bruce Stewart.

Masters of Ceremonies for the show were Don Holloway and Bill Santa. Miss Beverly Gressley was crowned Miss Modulus of 1952. Other candidates were Shirley Schnitz and Shirley Reeves.

This was a show long to be remembered by all of us.

Mr. Wilbern, our competent Faculty Advisor, is well known by everyone. He devotes sixth period each day to Modulus work and also spends endless hours working on the yearbook after school. He supervises every phase of Modulus work. Yes, it would be impossible to have our yearbook without him.

Willie has the title of Faculty Advisor but to us who work with him he's much more. He's a real friend.

Sally Carroll, our editor, has been a very busy girl this year. To her many fine achievements, she has now added her greatest, an excellent yearbook. A bouquet of thanks to you, Sally.

MODULUS STAFF Spends Busy Year

The Modulus Staff, under the capable leadership of Sally Carroll, was very busy this year. They spent hours working at the various tasks in preparing our yearbook: preparation of a dummy yearbook, showing each page as it should be when finished; drawing up the design for the cover and deciding on the color and grain; taking over one thousand pictures, developing them and then making retakes when necessary; writing up all activities, sports, and events; proofreading, typing, and proofing again all written material; cutting pictures and putting them correctly on a layout page for the engraver, checking proof of cuts and placing them in the printer's dummy; conferring with the printer on type and book layout, proofreading the printer's copy and the final check; selling advertising, typing the copy, proofreading it, and collecting for each ad; selling subscriptions and keeping an accurate record of them; recording all financial transactions accurately; and finally distributing the finished product. Whee! We hope you like it.

The Voice of the Schools of Huntington

Educational station W. V. S. H., The Voice of the Schools of Huntington, is fast becoming a very important part of our curriculum and our school life. Since its beginning January 1, 1950, hundreds of people from our high school, grade schools, and from our community have been heard on its programs. It has proved to be not only a responsibility, but a privilege and a pleasure to H. H. S. students.

W. V. S. H. is on the air five days a week for an average of three hours per day. During tournament time broadcasts are held all day. This year, through the loyal support of twenty-four of our local businessmen, a total of 13 out-of-town athletic games were broadcast. On the average the F. M. station was on the air 750 hours.

MR. DELMAR WEESNER

Delmar Weesner is celebrating his 26th year as director of our High School Band. He formed our first band in 1926 and down through the years has given our school the reputation of having one of the best bands in the state. A check through the many trophies and high honors won by the band in contests will prove this. It is through the effort and the hard work of Mr. Weesner that the band has reached the high grade of efficiency which it possesses.

making projects, the most prominent being a circus given in the community gym, for which the band received 50% of the profit minus expense, and the sponsoring of selling magazine subscriptions for the Curtis Circulation Company. The band members

MISS NORMA CHATTIN

For something special, we could always depend on our one and only majorette, Norma Chattin, who displayed fine talent at all the games this year.

DONALD HOLLOWAY

Say, do you know who that high-steppin' drum major is? Well it's Don Holloway, who did a splendid job leading our band this year. Don, who is a senior, has been our drum major for the past three years, and it will really be hard to find someone to fill his shoes.

were promised a turkey dinner by the Curtis representative if the goal of $1000, which he set, was reached. The band exceeded this amount and the Band Parents Association decided to buy more turkeys and a joint banquet for the band members and their parents was held in the school gym during early February.

The two big events of the year were the District Band Contest held at South Bend and the concert which was performed in early May.

This year the band can boast of five ensembles, which placed in first division in the District Solo and Ensemble contest at Fort Wayne; a brass sextette, a flute quartet, two clarinet quintets, and a woodwind quintet. The woodwind quintet made a trip down to Kentucky and back during the Thanksgiving holidays, and took an extensive tour during the spring. These ensembles practice whenever they can find time; during the noon hour, after school, or on Saturdays. They have furnished music for many churches and clubs in the city. Instrumental soloists were also active during the year in competition at the contests and while furnishing entertainment for many groups in the city.

Last year the band celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary. The highlight of that year was the anniversary concert given on May 5. Igor Buketoff, conductor of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra, directed the band through a pair of numbers and all of the alumni of the band, who were still in the field of music, were invited to conduct a number or perform a solo. The band also took a 24-hour trip to Detroit last year and visited Greenwich Village and the amusement park before starting home.

CHOIR

The Choir, under the direction of Cloyde Slater and accompanied by Pat Enos, had a year packed full of public appearances. They started out with their annual trips to the grade schools in preparation for the Christmas Concert and ended with their always lovely Spring Concert. We also heard the choir in the Modulus Review, at the Commencement exercises and in various public appearances.

This year the Girls Sextet included Betty Thornton, Nancy Halderman, Carol Becker, Sharon Altman, Sheila Ensminger, and Janice Powell. The quintet, a new organization, was composed of Carol Steele, Sue Day, Tom Barnhisel, Bob Collins, and Don Holloway.

We're always ready to listen to the Choir and such outstanding soloists as Jim Bradley, John Smith, Carol Becker, Nancy Halderman, Betty Thornton, and many others.

We're very proud of the commendable job done by Mr. Slater and the Huntington High School Choir.

MR. CLOYDE SLATER

One day in auditorium a Freshman was heard to ask, "Who's that man playing the organ?"

"You sure have a lot to learn," replied a Senior. "That's Cloyde Slater."

Not only does he play the organ for about anything we ask him to, but he also is director of our school choir. He gives organ lessons each week to interested students besides his other classes and activities.

Yes, we of Huntington High and of the city would be at quite a loss without Mr. Slater.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY Spreads Cheer

Kay Guhl, Roberta Dolby, Jean Bippus, Rosemary Clipp, Ann Weesner.

Part of the wonderful atmosphere here at H. H. S. that makes us feel that we have a school that would be considered tops anywhere, can be traced to an organization that is in full swing every day. This is, of course, the Sunshine Society.

This year, under the capable leadership of Jean Bippus and the guiding hand of the general sponsor, Miss Alice Kline, Sunshine Society has seen one of its biggest years in local history. We all have fond memories of the new Halloween dance, that M.M.S. hopes will become a tradition, its enchanting Sweetheart Dance, the inspiring Thanksgiving program, Mary White Guild's ever memorable Holy Week services, May Baskets, formal initiation of freshmen, Gales' Easter Eggs, Green Day, the hand of friendship extended during peanut week, the Sunrise Services on Easter morning, and the Senior breakfast. Besides all of this Sunshine that flooded our school year, even more was extended beyond H.H.S. to those who are less fortunate, by Craft and S.S.S.

Carolyn VanDine, Miss Emma Kline, Sally Shroyer, Jodine Williams, Miss Alice Kline, Nicki Schacht, Kay Guhl, Miss Hazel Cage, Rosemary Clipp, Sally Carroll, Miss Marie Porter, Norma Chattin, Sheila Ensminger, Miss Weiford, Margaret Chambers.

President Jean Bippus was ably assisted by her officers: Rosemary Clipp, Vice-president; Roberta Dolby, Treasurer; Ann Weesner, Corresponding Secretary, and Kay Guhl, Recording Secretary. The various committees carried out their many projects and activities under the leadership of: Sally Carroll and Norma Chattin, Co-chairmen; Lowell Buzzard, Financial Advisor—M.M.S.; Rosemary Clipp and Kay Guhl, Co-chairmen, Hazel Cage, Advisor — Gales; Sheila Ensminger and Margaret Chambers, Co-chairmen, Marie Porter and Florence Weiford, Advisors—Mary White Guild;

THE SAHATA

Where did page two go? I'm sure it was here a minute ago—oh, this stapler ran out—Miss Zahn, this article simply won't fit in. What will I do??? Why does everything happen at the last minute?

Does this sound familiar? Well, these are the usual sounds coming from room 309 about every other week when our Sahata is distributed.

The Sahata staff sees all, hears all and tells all. They do a very efficient job of reporting, writing, editing, and distributing. The jobs are exchanged with each new publication, so that everyone has an equal opportunity to gain experience in different fields of journalism.

The paper includes news about all current activities and events and of course the gossip column. The Sahata is always eagerly awaited and all available copies are snapped up immediately.

Many thanks to the staff, Gerry Zahn and Bruce Gerdes for their hard work and capable leadership. The work of a few has brought pleasure to many.

MASQUE AND GAVEL hosts to State Speech Contest

Senior Masque and Gavel is the speech and dramatics club here at Huntington High School. In order to be eligible for this Club a B average in English, Speech, and Radio Classes must be maintained. Our very worthy sponsor is Mrs. Patterson who is assisted by Duane Caley, President; Phyllis Krider, Vice-President, and Donna Gorham, Secretary.

Masque and Gavel holds its meetings the second and fourth Monday of the month in room 101. The second Monday is used for panel discussions, oratorical works, extemporaneous declamations, and impromptu speaking. The impromptu speaking comes as a result of being late for the meetings. This is always amusing to the audience and good experience for the speaker. The fourth Monday is set aside for plays of all types which are always very entertaining. At the end of each meeting, Mrs. Patterson gives a short critique.

During the year Masque and Gavel students go to various speech contests and debates at nearby colleges and universities. A main event of the year is always the trip to the annual Legislative Assembly at Purdue University.

This year Huntington High School had the privilege of being host to the annual State-Wide Speech Contest. The contest included everything from impromptu and original oratory to poetry and radio announcing. H. H. S. is very proud to have had several of her own students entered in the events.

Masque and Gavel also originates our monthly religious programs, provides skits and talent for our home-talent auditorium programs, and prepares several numbers for the Modulus Revue.

Jr. Masque and Gavel is a training group for Senior Masque and Gavel. At each meeting a group gives a play or reads speeches.

They were well represented at the annual banquet and the speech conference at Purdue University. They also gave a skit for the Modulus Revue.

The officers this year were Tom Glenn, President; Sally Hosler, Vice President, and Joyce Auer, Secretary.

SWING INN

Now we come to the most talked about place in town—the Swing Inn! Most everyone likes the Swing Inn, for without this wonderful institution how would we ever get to dance with our newest heart-throb or hear the latest git of gossip?

Our hats off to those able-bodied and iron-nerved sponsors who put up with us all year round—Mamie and Ed Sunley and Miss Henry.

To help keep order and make rules we have the Swing Inn Board consisting of Huntington High and Huntington Catholic students. Officers from Huntington High are: President, Darvin Haupert; Vice-President, Jean Ann Vernon; Secretary, Sue Barnhisel, and Treasurer, Marilyn Querry from Huntington Catholic. Other members from H. H. S. are Bill Bond, Wayne Cozad, Delene Smith, Duane Caley, and Sue Jane Day. From H. C. are David Carmichael, Mary Jane McNulty, and Dick Shores.

HI-Y'S Active in Many

This organization of junior and senior girls completed another year of fulfilled goals, establishing a challenge for oncoming members. The guest speakers talked on such subjects as world travel, social work, and sports; and joint panel discussions were held. The service projects for the year were: helping with the polio drive, making candy for the county home, and contributing to the World Youth Fund. The social events for the year were: the annual Father-Daughter Banquet, Sock Dance, Slumber Party, and potluck supper.

The sponsor, Mrs. O. K. Zeigler, was assisted this year by Donna Gorham, President; Nancy Burris, Vice-President; Phyllis Morris, Secretary; Margaret Rudig, Treasurer, and Betty Barnhisel, Chaplain.

Jr.-Tri-Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Robert Carey, certainly had a busy and full schedule this year. They had speakers from various walks of life talk on subjects of interest. A few of those were Mrs. Elmer Cozad, nursing; Mrs. Fred Tower, modeling; Miss Hazel Cage, etiquette; and Mrs. R. G. Johnston, manners. Some of the girl's work for the community was selling the rug for the Y to help redecorate the women's lounge and helping in the Red Feather Campaign. The very dependable officers serving this year were Joan Fountain, President; Ann Earhart, Vice-President; Sally Hosler, Secretary; Joyce Auer, Treasurer; and Kay Bechstein, Chaplain.

Phases of School Life

This year the officers of Hi-Y are trying to get the club back on its feet after a two or three year period of being rather inactive. The purpose of the club is to do some good to the community and to have some social functions during the year. The meetings are every two weeks and we either have a business discussion or a planned program. Some of our speakers have been Wayne Paulen, John Russo, and Bob Clark. The regular activities are planned—a hayride, Mother and Son Banquet, Father and Son Banquet, Best Girl Dance, and our joint meetings with Jr. Hi-Y and the Tri-Hi-Y groups.

The officers this year are—Ronald Pownall—President; Bruce Stewart—Vice President; Dale Coffman—Secretary-Treasurer; and Jack Ade—Chaplain. Ed Sunley, representing the Y. M. C. A., is our sponsor, and Charles K. Whitted is our advisor.

This club is for Freshman and Sophomore boys only. Like the Senior Club, it is a service organization. The creed was changed this year to: "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and c o m m u n i t y, higher standards of Christian character." Junior Hi-Y was sponsored this year by Phil Pittenger and the officers were: Jerry Ball, President; Tom G l e n, Vice-President; Dick Lee, Secretary-Treasurer; Terry DeLa-Grange, Chaplain.

Here too!!

GO VIKES!

The Booster Club is the organization whose sole purpose is to further school spirit. This year they arranged for busses to out-of-town games, held skits, organized pep sessions, and in general, just had fun. The initiation into this club is one of the high-spots of the year, also one of the messiest. The guiding lights for this year were Phyllis Krider, President; Dick Lintner, Vice-President; and Wayne Beemler, Sec'y.-Treas.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council consists of two students elected from each home room. The intended purpose of the organization is to give students a voice in the school government. The members are under the direction of Mr. Johnson and the officers for this year are: President, Bill Bond; Vice-President, Roger Handwork; Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Helvie.

A special project of the student council this year was helping with the P. T. A. Bake Sale.

F. T. A.

This organization, the "Future Teachers of America," is sponsored by the National Education Association at Washington and is for those students interested in the teaching profession. Mrs. Hillegas is sponsoring the club this year.

Various speakers, including Mr. Stephan and Betty Goodale, panel discussions, and films provided the entertainment for F. T. A. meetings. A lovely Valentine Tea was held by the club this year.

ACTUARIES

The purpose of Actuariae is to make the library a useful servant to the students. The club organizes the student library assistants, who help you find that answer you just knew couldn't be found. This year Actuariae had a hamburger fry, and a Mother's Tea. They decorated the Christmas Tree, and helped make the library more pleasant. The officers of this literary-minded club are: President, Nancy Burris; Vice-President, Marilyn Biehl; Secretary, Carol Chalmers; Treasurer, Zan Poorman. Mrs. June Davis sponsors the club.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club is an organization for students who are interested in Biology, and who maintain a B average in that subject. They held monthly meetings at which they had talks on subjects related to biology. Their two main events were the initiation of new members and their annual trip. This year's officers were: President, Darvin Haupert; Vice-President, Janet Herzog; Secretary, Jean Ann Vernon; and Treasurer, Zan Poorman.

The Biology Club sponsors were Mr. Hummer and Mr. Ware.

COUNSELING

Helping in the Counseling Department in our school were Janet Herzog, Shirley Schnitz, Garnet Sands, Phyllis Henemyer, Emma Stetzel, and Nancy Carey.

RADIO OPERATORS

Our school Radio, WVSH, has provided an excellent opportunity for students who are interested to study the technique of broadcasting and has also been a means of informing the community of many school activities.

ATTENDANCE

The students who assisted Mrs. Porter and Mr. Gordon in the Attendance Department this year were Larry Blackburn, Wayne Cozad, Wayne Beemler, Charles Helvie, Nancy Weinley, and Nedra Byrd.

AUDIO-VISUAL

Mr. McCabe Day, or as he is known to everyone in Huntington High "Pop" Day, is the Audio-Visual Director for the School City of Huntington. Pop has as his assistants anyone interested in Audio Visual work and willing to devote a study period to it.

BOOK RENTAL

Those students you saw lugging books and taking your money on book-rental days were Sally Carroll, Sue Day, Dora Pence, Marlene Riley, Janet Herzog, Margaret Chalmers, Jean Bippus, Jack Hendricks, Tom Fahrnow, Darvin Haupert, Dick Weyler, and Wayne Beemler.

WOODSHOP FOREMEN

The woodshop foremen are the "big wheels" of the manual training classes. They oversee all work, keep the machines in working order, and replenish supplies needed for their classes. The woodshop foremen this year were Gene Stephan, Hervey Weiford, Tom Bowman, Ronald Pownell, Pauldene Dolby, Ed Haines, Dick Cotton, Bill Johnson, Howard Teddy, Bob Peters, and Jim Dinius.

SWEETHEART DANCE

Lovely music by Bob Carrel's Orchestra, silhouettes of ballerinas, hearts, and nosegays made the evening of February 16, 1952 one to be remembered—for that was the evening of the traditional Sweetheart Dance, sponsored by M. M. S. Jeanie Bippus, President of S. S. S., and her escort, Phil Lundell, broke the traditional heart. From the remarks overheard as the tired, but happy couples left, it must have been a huge success. Sally Carroll served as chairman of the dance with Lowell Buzzard as financial adviser.

Thanks to M. M. S. for one of the most enjoyable social events of the year.

RECEPTION 1951

The banquet hall of the Masonic Temple was converted into a beautiful undersea grotto for the Junior-Senior Reception of 1951. Jean Bippus was toastmistress for the affair, Duane Caley gave the welcome, and Phil Burchett the response. Phil Steigerwal, soloist from Fort Wayne, and the Reverend David R. Hutchinson were featured on the program. Mr. Gail Lancaster provided the dinner music and the Prophecy and Will were read. Music for the Dance was furnished by Dick Mordente and his orchestra.

Sports

Athletics is the last essential flower in our "Bouquet of Memories." We'll never forget the innumerable trips to Kriegbaum Field and the excitement of a crowd gone touchdown crazy, or Community Gym and the crowds cheering hysterically to see a ball dropped neatly through the net. The atmosphere of competition and of sportsmanship was good for the spectators as well as the players, and the student body was behind their team one hundred per cent.

FOOTBALL TEAM Breaks

The Vikings' season record for 1952 showed a little improvement over last year. The Vikes came out on the short end of a 2-7 final standing.

In the first game with Marion, Don Weber hit pay dirt twice and the Giants handed the Vikings a 12-0 loss. Huntington threatened when Wayne Beemler hit Dick Lintner with a 30 yard pass, but time ran out in the second quarter.

The Norsemen upset the Airedales of Hartford City, 13-6 and broke an 11-game losing streak that began in November, 1949.

A missed conversion cost the Norsemen a tie in their game with Wabash. It was a hard fought game, but we seemed to have trouble converting after a touchdown.

Again missed conversions cost the Vikes as the Warsaw Tigers grabbed a 28-26 win at Warsaw. A lot of fumbles and mistakes were made on both sides, but the breaks of the game were about even.

A keyed-up band of Elwood Panthers, using a ground attack, overwhelmed the Vikings 33-6.

For the third time, a missed conversion proved costly as the Vikes lost a close one to the Bengals of Fort Wayne 7-6. The Norsemen outgained the Central eleven on the ground and in the air.

Huntington garnered its second win of the season against Rochester; and the Vikings looked good in all departments. The score was 40-6, our highest for the season.

The Plymouth Pilgrims attack proved too tough for the Vikes to handle, and we lost 25-6. It must have been a happy Thanksgiving for the Pilgrims.

The Vikes were able to gain a lot of yardage against Peru, but the breaks went to Peru and we lost 15-12.

Next year Huntington should see a much more victorious season.

CO-CAPTAINS

Wayne Beemler and Dick Lintner were elected Co-Captains for our Viking Football team. They served well during the entire season.

Boyd Scarborough, one of the Vikings' outstanding players of the past season, was sidelined last season with a bad ankle and came back to be one of the best line backers of all Viking history. Boyd also played offensive center.

Gene Stephan finished up his senior year as a varsity letterman. "Waf," as he was sometimes called, played up front in the right tackle slot and some in the right guard position.

Ed Haines was switched from his last year's position of end to the line job at left tackle which he filled very well. "Agate Eye" brought to us several 15 yard penalties, but his defense covered those mistakes.

Thomas "Tom" Fahrnow proved his worth later in the season and pulled into the right half position. Tom played principally offense and did a lot of very nice running for the Norsemen.

Darvin Haupert filled in at one of the end positions and liked to go after those long passes.

Jim Bradley, who came to us from Atlanta via Cleveland, played his first year of football. He was used as an end.

Bob Spath was used principally as a substitute guard. He finished two seasons of play for the Vikes.

Dean Fry helped the Viking cause as a substitute lineman, going in as a tackle.

Dick Lintner, or "Slade" as he is sometimes called, finished his third year of varsity football as our left end. Dick was elected honorary co-captain of his team, and was elected to a spot on the second C I C team. He was high scorer of the season on his terrific pass catching ability.

Wayne Beemler, the "pile-driving" left half back for the Vikings, was elected Co-Captain of the Norsemen and to a position on the second C I C team backfield. Wayne finished his second year as a varsity man by being second high scorer for the season.

Jack Hendricks, the fullback who switched from half on offense to safety on defense, was put to the task of punt returning and knocking down long passes. This was Jack's second year as a varsity letterman in football.

Dick "Spink" Weyler, the right guard who filled an all important slot in the front line this season, was a return letterman from last year. Dick was a good man to have up front opening the holes to let our backs get through.

Ed Shenefield, a veteran of two previous years, very capably filled in the right tackle position, principally on defense. Ed made the first string as a sophomore and his experience helped the Vikings a lot this season.

Back Row—Jack Walknetz, Dave Grim, Lowell Thorn, Don Kimmel, Huston Smith, Ted Voght, Paul Huffman, Gene Kaufman, Jerry Juergens.
First Row—Dave Winkleman, Jim Rouch, Dick Butt, John Beal, Dick Ferguson, Niel Derr.

B AND FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

This year's B team, under the direction of Oscar Naab, turned in a record of seven wins and two losses. Coach Naab used several Seniors this season, something which is not too frequently done, but proved to be a great advantage.

Coach Dan Perry's Freshman team finished the season much as did the varsity; they won three and lost five. The Frosh had a good sized line and a fairly fast backfield, but they couldn't seem to click at the right time in the right places. However, the prospects are very good, and after working together for a while, a strong team should be the outcome.

Back Row—Mike Arlington, Kenny Weinley, Jay Boyer, Chris Spath, Dick Holmes, Carlson Becker, Bob Paulen.

OUR HOOSIER MADNESS

During the season our Vikings racked up 9 victories and 15 losses. Our victories were over Rochester, Alexander, Decatur, Tipton, Plymouth, Lancaster, Jefferson of Whitley and Roanoke. Our losses were to Wabash, Warsaw, Peru, Muncie Burris, Fort Wayne Central, (2), Auburn, (2), Hartford City, Marion, Fort Wayne South Side, Elwood, Crispus Attucks, and Logansport.

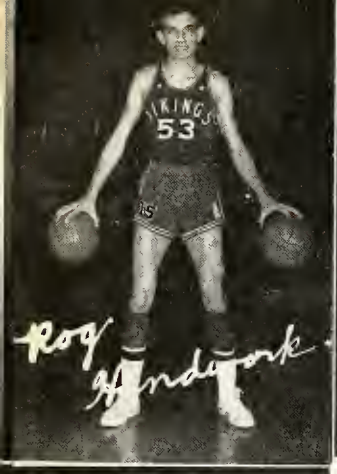
The Vikings played a number of the top teams of the state during the season. For about 3 quarters of these games, the Vikes played on even terms, but one cold quarter caused defeat.

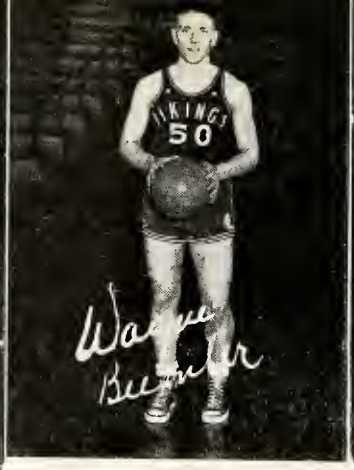
Probably the best ball played by our Vikes was during the sectional tournament when they averaged over 60 points per game. This average would have been higher had it not been for the stall game with Jefferson. However, they reversed themselves at the regional and lost to Redkey 49-39.

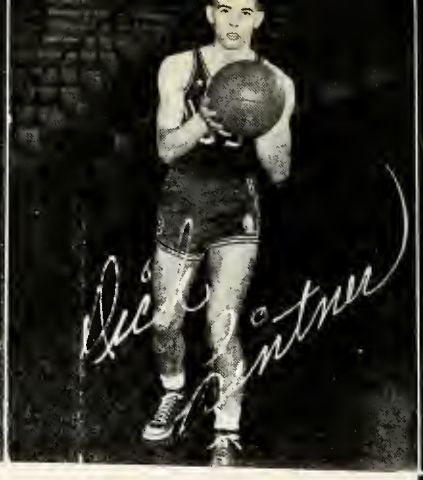
Next year brings a tough schedule and we hope good luck.

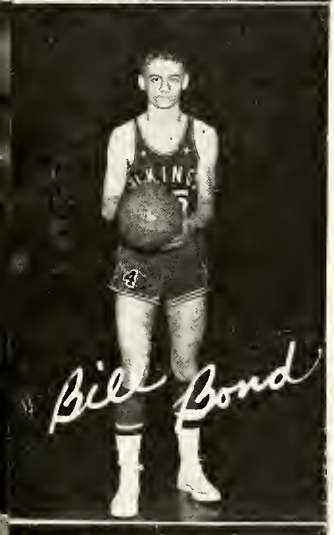
YELL-LEADERS Keep School Spirit High

The yell leaders for the year were: Nancy Carey, Joyce Ahner, and Beverly Gressley for the Vikes; and Sue Barnhisel, Shirley Gressley, and Norma Chattin for the Scyds.









Dick Lintner, the six foot one inch Senior, veteran of two previous years, was elected captain for the season. A forward last season, he switched to guard and made the Vikings a good leader on the court.

Wayne Beemler, a five foot ten inch Senior, who finished his second year of varsity ball, was an all important ball player on the court. It was not his points, but his assists that really racked up the scores. Wayne played guard straight through.

Darvin Haupert, a six foot Senior, finished his first year of varsity basketball this season. Although this was his first year of varsity, he proved his worth to the team by playing a hard aggressive brand of ball that at times put the needed spark to the team.

Bill Bond, who is a Junior, came into his own during the 1952 Sectional. This was Bill's second season of varsity ball. He won a place on the first all tourney team.

Ronnie Crawley, a six foot Junior, furnished a lot of spark and drive toward winning. He will be back for another season of basketball with the Vikes. He is very good on defense and on the rebounds.

Wayne Cozad, a five foot ten inch Junior, was a valuable guard for his shooting and assist ability. Wayne will be back next season to fill in a slot on the Vikes machine.

Roger Handwork, a six foot four inch Sophomore, who has possibilities to burn as a good ball player, finished his second year of varsity ball this year as a first string center and forward.

Blaine Robrock, the six foot three inch Sophomore, who made the 1952 Sectional first team, furnished the Vikes with a lot of needed rebound strength.

Gene Carroll, the six foot one inch Sophomore, thrilled the fans during the last few games of the season with his long set shots. Gene will be back for future action on the Norse team.

Pat Boyle, a five foot eleven inch Sophomore, came from the Scyldings at the close of the Viking cage session to find himself a spot on the Sectional and Regional team.

Don Hum, the disabled six foot two inch Sophomore, was sidelined at the close of the season with a lung infection. Don played high point ball and helped considerably on rebounds He will be with the Vikes next year.

SCYLDINGS

Our Scyldings, coached by Oscar Naab, had a rough season in 1952. Their record for the year was 8 victories and 11 defeats. However, the majority of their games were close, hard fought decisions.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Dan Perry's Freshman squad was defeated in 11 games and won only 3. Although the record doesn't look so good, a number of the boys showed improvement and gave promise of better records to come.

The "H" Club was made up of major letter and senior award winners. The club was a very important part of our school and set the example for the rest of the students.

The club annually sponsored the OLD Vikes—New Vikes game to conclude the Basketball season. The Old Vikes won this year by a score of 36 to 48. G. A. A. High Lights of the Year

The Athletically inclined girls, sponsored by Miss Ruth Luther, participated in many sports this year. They also sponsored a skating party, bowling party, sold candy and cards, held a Mother-Daughter Banquet, and went to Indianapolis to see the Ice Revue. Sounds as though they had a busy year!

The officers for "52" were Phyllis Saufley, President; Peg Kramer, Vice-President; Carol Chalmers, Secretary, and Marilyn Beihl, Treasurer. Peg Kramer, Phyllis Saufley, and Joan Crooks were plaque winners.

DIARY

SEPTEMBER

Sept. 5. First day of school and all the upper classmen were too kind to pull the old elevator joke on any of the freshman.

Sept. 6. Started classes in earnest! . . . wonder why we were all so tired by 3:10 . . . ?

Sept. 7. First football game at Marion tonight . . . we lost 12-0.

Sept. 10. Overheard some of the Junior girls talking today . . . seems as though some one lost something at the game last Friday.

Sept. 11. Hey, Seniors! How about that Civics Test? Rough, don't you agree?

Sept. 12. Joe von Roemer talked to us in assembly this morning.

Sept. 13. Miss Ellis: "Who signed the Magna Carta?" A student, "I didn't." mmmmmm . . . Oh, well, it's still early in the year.

Sept. 14. Hurray! ! We beat Hartford City 13 to 6!

Sept. 17. In a chemistry class . . . An example of hard water is ice. . . . What a way to start the week.

Sept. 18. Our auditorium program was a little Dutchie this morning . . . Jan Hollander talked to us about the customs of the Netherlands.

Sept. 19. Today we took our annual educational trip to Chicago. The outstanding thing . . . cokes are 30c at their theaters!

Sept. 20. The "Marching 40" had their first band practice at the field today. Those energetic band members!

Sept. 21. Doggone! Wabash beat us, it was only by one point . . . 19-18.

Sept. 24. Tonight was the first meeting of Masque and Gavel. . . . The suggestion made most often was . . . Hurry up, I've got to get to the Swing Inn.

Sept. 25. Jean Ann, what were you doing in the hall sixth period? ? ? ? Poor Pudge Helvie had an atomic bomb or balm or something on his sprained ankle.

Sept. 26. Sr. Tri-Hi-Y met tonight . . . Sr. Hi-Y met tonight . . . we all met at the Swing Inn.

Sept. 27. What's this that the coach has planned for our team if they are caught talking to the Girls? ? ? ?

Sept. 28. We played Warsaw there tonight . . . score Warsaw 28, Vikes 26.

OCTOBER

Oct. 1. Monday again (yawn) . . . Say Joan, what was so funny at the Y Saturday . . . anyone smell any foul play?

Oct. 2. Boy—it sure is hot today! Wonder who'll win the B-Team game? We will, of course. P. S. We did!

Oct. 3. U. S. History class . . . "Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?" . . . "At the bottom."

Oct. 4. Boy, oh boy, did we have a lot of laughs from Hal Rodman, make-up artist. What's the matter Dick, bashful?

Oct. 5. Radio Workshop students went to Ball State today, but got back to go to Elwood to the game. Lost 33-6.

Oct. 8. Masque and Gavel meeting tonight. . . . Fingers, what kind of flower did they grow at the Premier?

Oct. 9. Phil McMahan, hero of the day . . . shed a little light on the fire prevention program.

Oct. 10. Mrs. Dean Hosler returned from her wedding trip. . . . Best wishes, Carol.

Oct. 11 Looks like we'll have some future bombardiers in the Freshman class . . . how about that, Miss Ellis? ? ? ?

Oct. 12. Columbus Day. Woe! Woe! We lost to Central 7-6!

Oct. 15. Back to the old grind. . . . Ah, the bliss of a new six weeks.

Oct. 16. Oh, My! It's awfully hard to concentrate on a day like this with the thought of a vacation tomorrow.

Oct. 17. No school today! Hurray, Hurray!

Oct. 18. 'Swonderful . . . the auditorium program. J. Robertson presented a program on the hit tunes of 1951 B.C.

Oct. 19. Joy, Joy . . . we won our last game 40-6!

Oct. 22. Masque and Gavel tonight . . . Marcus, was your reading directed at any freshman in our high school?

Oct. 23. Miss Kline, did you know that hard water is bad for household use because it scratches the furniture?

Oct. 24. Last day of school . . . this week.

Oct. 25. Isn't vacation wonderful? ? ? ?

Oct. 30. Seniors are outstanding . . heard in Civics . . . the president has a cabinet to keep his dishes in.

Oct. 31. Jr. and Sr. Tri-Hi-Y initiation and reception.

NOVEMBER

Nov. 1. Thursday. . . . So what?

Nov. 2. Football game at Peru. Last game this season. Lost 15-12. No comment.

Nov. 5. Junior Class sold hot dogs after school . . . mmmmm . . . mmmmm . . . good.

Nov. 6. HO HUM! ! ! !

Nov. 7. Mr. Diffenbaugh was absent today. Maybe his fifth period Physics class was too much for him . . . tsk, tsk.

Nov. 8. Mighty nice weather, isn't it? ? ? ? Mighty "weathery" anyway.

Nov. 9. Senior class elected Jean Bippus vice president. Congratulations Jeanie!

Nov. 12. Masque and Gavel had a discussion on "Narcotics." We're agin' 'em!

Nov. 13. Sophomores ordered their class rings . . . boy, are they beauties . . . the rings, I mean.

Nov. 14. Business people visited our school today.

Nov. 15. Kay Carroll lost her shoes and she came down with the fire alarm blues. . . .

Nov. 16. Charlie Cutshall was voted best looking boy for various reasons . . . just ask the girls in the Modulus room.

Nov. 19. Mr. Ware was absent today. Mrs. Warren substituted for him.

Nov. 20. Janet's known Ken for one month.

Nov. 21 Thanksgiving program was given by Sunshine. Thank you, Mr. Gerdes, for the nice note to Miss Kline and the girls who took part in the program. Mr. Johnson dismissed us at 3:15.

Nov. 22 & 23. Thanksgiving Vacation.

Nov. 26. Best looking boy? Tom. Most popular? Tom. Best disposition? Tom. Best athlete? Tom. Who says so? Tom. Yea! Rah! TOM!

Nov. 27. Played first home game . . . against Warsaw . . . lost 37-32.

Nov. 28. Mr. A. Sckenkel spoke to us on "What Industry Expects of High School Students."

Nov. 29. A few seniors are still running around trying to get everyone's name card.

Nov. 30. Masuqe and Gavel students went to the Speech Conference and Legislative Assembly at Purdue! Hail, Hail, to Old Purdue.

Dec. 4. Who were those funny looking people (?) kneeling in the halls of H. H. S.? Only Biology Club Members-to-be.

Dec. 5. Junior Town Meeting with Elmhurst High . . . the question . . . "Should High School Students Have a Voice in School Discipline?"

Dec. 6. WHAT a day! What A day! What, a DAY?

Dec. 7. Played Peru here . . . lost 41-36.

Dec. 10. Pudge says nothing interesting happened today and he should know!

Dec. 11. Miss Wilson is really getting her wish for real winter weather.

Dec. 12. The Woodwind Quintet, Susie Barnhisel, the Girls' Sextet, and Ronnie James presented a musical Wednesday morning program . . . very nice, too.

Dec. 13. Don't bother me . . . I'm plotting my revenge. . . . Some alien pushed me down in the snow . . . say Janie, how about that?

Dec. 14. We BEAT Alexandria 60 to 50! Hurray!

Dec. 17. What a lovely day to walk to school . . . believe me I'm only kidding. I wonder what Miss Wilson thinks of winter weather right now?

Dec. 18. Five more shopping days until Christmas.

Dec. 19. Mr. Wallace, state entomologist, presented a very interesting program and showed slides of the state parks. The slides were very unusual and made us appreciate the beauty in our state of Indiana.

Dec. 20. Very nice Christmas program. Best thing about it was the dismissal for Christmas vacation. See you in "52."

Dec. 31. Demolay Jingle Bell Ball.

Jan. 3. Junior class had a very rugged English test . . . looks like we seniors got out just in time!

Jan. 4. I hate to mention it, but we lost to Hartford City tonight . . . fortunately I forgot the score.

Jan. 7. Oh, my aching feet . . . had dance chorus practice for the Modulus Revue.

Jan. 8. Played a wonderful game against Marion . . . only the score doesn't show it! !

Jan. 9. Had time out from all our tests for a very special program . . . a home talent program.

Jan. 10. Half day of school today, because it's the last of the first semester. Good thing that we have a short vacation today because after report cards come out . . . Oh, well, you know how it is!

Jan. 11. Got our report cards at 1:00 p.m. today. Lovely day, wasn't it?

Jan. 14. Rented our books for the second semester today . . . Bill isn't with us in second period study any more . . . too bad.

Jan. 15. My! My! Miss Ellis is going to have two very ardent students in study hall . . . one is studying History and one Economics . . . isn't that right, Janet?

Jan. 16. Think Mr. Ware will ever find room for all his devoted 3rd period Economics students?

Jan. 17. No, I don't think he ever will and that's that for today.

Jan. 18. Mr. Davis from Purdue University told us some interesting and humorous stories of James Whitcomb Riley. We all had tears in our eyes after his recitations of "Out to Old Aunt Mary's" and "The Old Man and Jim." We surely did enjoy him!

Jan. 21. This may sound "horsey" but we're still recuperating from a certain slumber party at Ann B's.

Jan. 22. Boy oh boy! ! We beat Decatur . . . Scyds 37 to 32 . . . Vikes 61 to 32.

Jan. 23. I wonder if Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Hillegas would consider teaching a course on charm sixth period? ? ?

Jan. 24. Sweetheart Dance tickets went on sale today . . . good . . . good.

Jan. 25. Well, we played Ft. Wayne Central tonight . . . lost . . . Doggone.

Jan. 28. We wish to note that Miss Powers was photographed this afternoon with Mr. Mayor and a line may form outside her home to gaze upon this elite specimen.

Jan. 29. Dance Choruses, skits, and music are all practicing and working hard for a really swell Revue. . . . Bev Gressly, Shirley Reeves, and Shirley Schnitz are busy selling tickets.

Jan. 30. The Exchange students presented a program for the auditorium this morning. They came from Huntington College, No. Manchester and of course we had our own Joe and Eugene.

Jan. 31 Seniors presented and dedicated their new gift of the sound system for the Auditorium.

FEBRUARY

Feb. 1. We played Tipton and we won! Wheee! ! !

Feb. 4. Dress rehearsal for the Modulus Revue . . . boy we're tired already.

Feb. 5. Opening Night! ! ! Beverly Gressly is the Modulus Queen of '52! ! ! Congratulations, Bev.

Feb. 6. Wonder why . . . no one had their lessons today? ? Three guesses! ! !

Feb. 7. Last day of the Revue of '52. . . . Hurray and boohoo all in one breath. P. S. Pudge fell in the fish pond . . . explain that one, if you please . . . he says he was chasing a dog. . . . mmmmmmm?

Feb. 8. Say, this has been a busy week. Tonight we played Crispus Attucks. . . . Scyds lost 42 to 39. Vikes lost 66 to 46.

Feb. 9. Saturday night game with Logansport—there— We won't say anything though.

Feb. 11. One hundred and seventeen absent . . . could the Revue be a small cause of this? I doubt it.

Feb. 12. Golly . . . how will the seniors ever be able to live through this week . . . tryouts for the senior play Melody Jones are being held . . . wow!

Feb. 13. Today the senior committees picked the class flower, motto, and colors. . . . The flower is the camellia, which means "endurance—power from knowledge." The colors for our class are silver and black. Jim Trzynka wrote the class motto "Armed with the shield of knowledge, we shall go forward." Isn't he quite a genius? We are very proud of him.

Feb. 14. Why, hello there. . . . It's St. Valentine's Day!

Feb. 15. Tonight we beat Plymouth 60 to 59! ! ! Joy Joy! ! The Scyds won, too.

Feb. 16. The very Loveliest of Sweetheart Dances! ! ! !

Feb. 18. My gosh, look at all the pretty flowers walking around today. . . .Methinks they're left from the Dance.

Feb. 19. Tuesday—oh well, it happens every week.

Feb. 20. Pictures taken of the Revue dance chorus . . . smile pretty, girls.

Feb. 21. Senior play practice. . . . Act 1 coming up! ! ! !

Feb. 22. Last game of the season. . . . Oh well, at least the Scyds won . . . 30-17.

Feb. 25. Romeo and Juliet and the World Literature Class . . . what a trio.

Feb. 26. Mr. Perry, couldn't you find an easier place to have us park! Please! ! ! !

Feb. 27. Boy oh boy, there are some sorry looking sights dragging around recuperating from Booster Club initiation.

MARCH

March 1. On to Marion we must go, we must go, we must go. On to Marion we must go, we won the Sectional! ! ! ! !

March 3. This has been a very depressing day . . . need I say more . . . by the way we started the second act of Melody Jones.

March 4. Why, pray tell, do the boys constantly hang around Mr. Perry's desk during fourth period study? ? ? ?

March 5. Mrs. Hillegas has a very attractive bulletin board in her room . . . how about that, Sophomore Vikings? ? ? ? ?

March 6. How can we ever wait for Saturday to come and the Regional? ? ? ? I feel lucky. Bet we win, how about you?

March 7. Geepers, doesn't it seem funny not to have a game tonight? ? ? ? Nice for some though. . . .

March 8. Marion won the Regional. Boo hoo.

March 10. Blue Monday. . . . Quite a spell of spring "showers" wouldn't you say so?

March 11. Sophomores are showing off their new class rings. Wow, are they ever beauties. . . .

March 12. Beware of fast moving vehicles . . . some of the driver's training students got their licenses! ! ! Hurray! !

March 13. Mrs. Patterson took five of her speech students to Hoagland today to participate on Jr. Town Meeting . . . we discussed radio.

March 14. It's really just like spring and you know the old saying, "In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of . . . TRACK."

March 17. Well, there's quite a bit o' wearin' o' the green today . . . and a good day to you St. Patrick! !

March 18. Hurray! Seniors beat Juniors. And they did, too . . . 46 to 34! ! !

March 19. Opening night of the senior class play Melody Jones. Boy, are we shaking in our boots. . . . Congratulations Marlene Riley, Senior Queen.

March 20. Say now, Jim, Ballet lessons free for outstanding pupils like you . . . I've always heard it said, "You should keep both feet on the ground." Now I know why it's true.

March 21. Last night of the play . . . glad to see Tom back as M.C. . . . now . . . parties . . .parties. . . .

March 24. Another Monday . . . say Jack, how about cokes for the whole staff next time . . . mmmmmm. . . . ?

March 25. Dr. Henry Crane spoke to us in Auditorium this morning. . . . He was very inspiring . . . we want to hear him again and we will every night this week.

March 26. Hervey must really have a job . . . his English class missed him. . . . Why? They said he wasn't there . . . good enough reason? ? ? ?

March 27. Poor Joe . . . he wants to steal away to Honduras . . . don't think he'll ever make it. . . . His Lit. class would know where to look for him. . . .

March 28. Hear Janie got a request for Pat Boyle from some one who doesn't care . . . can this be possible? ? ? ? No never! ! ! !

March 31. March is going out like a lamb . . . after a swim in a river.

APRIL

April 1. Was any body an April fool today? Well, I think I might name a few. . . .

April 2. Weren't you surprised at the number of students that decided to go to I. U. this morning . . . just after they announced that there was a man here to talk to the interested students. . . .

April 3. Nothing like mixing studies with pleasure . . . results . . . four ice cream cones . . . at nine twenty. . . . Any questions? ? ? ?

April 4. Bah Humbug . . . unquote.

April 7. Isn't Robert Browning just absolutely . . . confusing?

April 8. Dr. Jones from Ft. Wayne presented a wonderful Holy Week sermon on St. Peter.

April 9. Track meet tonight after school . . . looks like Darvin Haupert is really a star.

April 10. We all enjoyed the very beautiful Holy Week Services . . . sponsored by the Sunshine Society. . . . The choir was very nice.

April 11. Good Friday. No school.

April 14. Was the Easter Bunny good to every one? ? ? ?

April 15. Is it really true that the juniors are getting Fifi Wilson and her dancers for the Reception this year? ? ? ?

April 16. The District speech contest was held today at Columbia City. . . . Good Luck to the Contestants from H. H. S.

April 17. Ah golly, what a day to stay indoors . . . do you think the teachers would really mind if we played hoo- - - oh but we would not want to miss school when we have only about five weeks left.

April 18. Dora Pence is so inquisitive . . . but I'm really flattered . . . she actually wants to read this thing. . . .

April 21. Nothing much doing except for the juniors . . . hear that they're all busy getting ready for the Reception. . . . I wonder . . . do you really think they'll sell popcorn in the hall at the dance? . . . We know the juniors are proud of their machine . . . but jeepers.

April 22. Do you know what Roger Handwork gets done in fourth period study? "Nothing." I wouldn't bet on that. . . .

April 23. Tri-Hi-Y had their annual Father-Daughter banquet tonight.

April 24. There's a circle around this calendar . . . but your guess is as good as mine as to just what is going to happen.

April 25. Whoopee . . . I just got an idea for my Economics term paper. . . . About time, wouldn't you say. . . .

April 28. This week is going to be just like every other one . . . I can just tell . . . it started out on Monday like it always does . . . how monotonous. . . .

April 29. Tuesday followed Monday . . . you know I think it must be a habit . . . could be, Mother says it was the same when she was a girl. . . .

April 30. Last day of April . . . I think it's time for a party . . . how about a farewell party to April . . . well, a poor excuse is better than none.

MAY

May 1. All the teachers got their pretty flowers from the SSS girls. . . . They surely are pretty . . . the flowers. . . .

May 2. Oh, I forgot to mention Jeanie's birthday . . . doggone . . . Belated Happy Birthday. . . . (How embarrassing, she told me in time to put it in the diary but I forgot . . . you know how it is . . . think she'll mind . . . it was only three weeks ago.)

May 5. Oh Gosh, Seniors, this is our last week, golly there isn't much to say, is there?

May 6. I see that some of the seniors are bound to make the last week for us the last week . . . period.

May 7. The Ballet was here for our auditorium program . . . we liked it very much.

May 8. What will Mr. Diffenbaugh ever do without Jim and Bruce in his Physics class . . . hear he's made some big plans for next year . . . I wonder if there's any connection. . . ? ? ?

May 9. Achievement Day . . . Seniors had a pretty good skit, don't you think so . . .

May 12. Baccalaureate was yesterday . . . golly the halls sound quiet . . . oh, for goodness' sake, what am I doing here . . . this is Senior Week.

May 13. I think Tuesday is the very nicest day of the year . . . this week. . . . Must run in and say hello to Mrs. Hillegas . . . wonder if her faithful girl Friday came back this week to help her out . . . even if Janet is a senior.. . . .

May 14. Stores are closed and so are the doors of the Masonic Temple. . . . Students turned in their books today . . . you know what that means, vacations are about to start. . . .

May 15. Juniors had one of the very loveliest receptions. Thank you.

May 16. Commencement. We seniors have really collected a great bouquet of Happy Memories . . . we'll leave the seeds of tradition for you underclassmen to raise and the hope that your green thumb of activities gives you the harvest we've had.

Good bye.
